Sefton Park Schools English Medium Term Planner

Year 5 Term 3
Curious	Creative	Confident

Topic Enquiry Question	Relationships Education	Equality and Diversity
What can we learn from Ancient Islamic Civilizations?	● Reach for the stars	★ Theme of topic reflects the school community.
Cross Curricular Showcase
Non-chronological reports (chosen topic areas of study)

Core Text, Poem or Stimulus	Genre of Showcase	Composition
● The Golden Horsemen of Baghdad - Saviour Pirotta	● Opinions, arguments and discussions (persuasive) ● Letter (informal - from Jabir to his family) ● Non-chronological report (cross-curricular showcase)	● Opinion: backed up with facts from text, subordination, first person and sentence starters. ● Persuasive devices: rhetorical questions, alliteration, emotive language, exclamations, exaggeration, repetition, sentence starters, facts and rule of 3. ● Letters: sender's address, date, appropriate greeting, introduction, paragraphs around a theme, writing in the first person, vocabulary that shows an informal style, recipient addressed directly, conclusion, sender's name. First person, effective punctuation. ● Non-chron reports: Heading, subheadings, introduction, paragraphs, fact boxes, illustrations, captions, glossary, bullet points.

Spelling	Punctuation	Grammar	Terminology

Sefton Park Schools English Medium Term Planner

• Creating nouns using -ity suffix • Creating nouns using -ness suffix • Creating nouns using -ship suffix • Homophones & Near Homophones	★ Persuasive: Commas in a list, rhetorical questions, exclamations. ★ Letters: commas, capital letters, exclamations, questions, direct speech, apostrophes, semi-colons, hyphens. ★ Non-chron reports: Capital letters, bullet points, headings, questions, colons (glossary).	★ Persuasive: Opinion: backed up with facts from text, subordination, first person and sentence starters, rhetorical questions, alliteration, emotive language, exclamations, exaggeration, repetition, sentence starters, facts and rule of 3. ★ Letters: informal style, first person, questions and exclamations. ★ Non-Chron reports: Third person, formal tone, impersonal, present tense.	★ Persuasive: rhetorical questions, alliteration, emotive language, exclamations, exaggeration, repetition, sentence starters, facts. ★ Letters: complimentary close, signature, initial opening, informal writing, slang. ★ Non-chron reports:heading,sub-heading, glossary, paragraphs, third person, formal and impersonal, specific vocabulary, facts and evidence.